

Japan Overseas Educational Services

JOES Foreign Language Retention Program

- Part-time (Saturday Only) English Teacher – Osaka / Tokyo / Yokohama

Job Details:

We are looking for professional English teachers who have a long term commitment to Japan and who can commit themselves to working on Saturdays in our academic year.

Experience and an enthusiasm for teaching children from second grade to ninth grade is an advantage. A teaching license is an advantage.

Academic year schedule:

Term 1; April to mid July

Term 2; September to mid December

Term 3; January to mid-March

- The students have all lived and been educated overseas.
- The focus of the class is to develop the students' reading and writing skills.
- The classes are taught entirely in English in an atmosphere that resembles a regular school class overseas (USA, UK, Australia, international school, etc.).
- The classes are divided into four groups by grade, 2nd, 3rd & 4th, 5th & 6th, and 7th, 8th & 9th grades. These groups are then divided into further groups by ability.

JOES will provide the core materials for your classes, but we expect our teachers to be able to develop their own suitable materials over time and to be able to plan their lessons in advance for each term.

Please send your resume, photo and the covering letter by e-mail to:

Japan Overseas Educational Services (JOES) was established through the initiative of Japanese corporations as a non-profit, private organization aimed at promoting the education of Japanese children abroad in accordance with the government's policy of overseas education. Many corporations and organizations engaged in overseas business activities have come together to establish this foundation.

JOES was officially founded on January 29, 1971 as a non-profit foundation with the approval of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Ministry of Education. Since then, it has made significant contributions in promoting the education of Japanese children overseas.
