Call for applications for part-time English teachers (April 2018)

We are inviting applications from motivated English teachers who are either:

- 1) Native or near-native English-speakers, or
- 2) Native Japanese-speakers

Teaching Positions:

90-minute English communication and English reading classes for undergraduates, held once per week for 2x15-week semesters (courses are year-long from April to January).

Days and times of classes are negotiable, and pay depends on qualifications and experience. Positions are offered on a yearly basis, and are renewable by mutual agreement.

Qualifications:

Applicants must:

1. be native speakers of English, or have near-native proficiency with experience living in an English-speaking country OR be native speakers of Japanese with near-native proficiency in English and experience of living in an English-speaking country
2. hold a Master's degree or higher, in TESOL or a related field
3. have at least 3 years of teaching experience at university level in Japan
4. have published academic articles

Interested applicants should send by mail to the address below their complete resume, including educational background, work experience and list of publications, along with a one-page description in English of their approach to teaching.

Applicants should indicate their availability to teach (days and times) in their cover letter. Please write "Part-Time (English) 2018" in red ink on the envelope.

Application deadline: September 12, 2017

(Applications must arrive by this date.)

We regret that we are unable to respond to inquiries by telephone.
